October Outing - Cley Marshes

Saturday 23rd October 2010

Cley Marshes Nature Reserve on the north Norfolk coast is one of the UK's finest bird watching sites, the pools and scrapes, all within easy view of the hides, are flush with unusual and interesting birds. Bittern, Avocet, Spotted Redshank, Marsh Harrier, Woodcock, Brent Geese along with huge numbers of waterfowl and waders are all regulars at this excellent reserve. We will meet in the reserve car park at 0900. If time permits we will also visit other locations along the north Norfolk coast.

Directions:

The reserve is located half a mile east of Cley-next-the-Sea on the A149 coast road.

To book a place please contact Andrew Cliff no later than Monday 18th October 2010
